

What Christmas Means To Me

By PAUL CRAWN
Shawnee-on-Deleware

ONCE THERE WAS a wise man who said that "a man's life consists not in an abundance of things." To slightly paraphrase the idea, Christmas does not consist of an abundance of Christmas presents.

So often we are deluded by the silver tinsel, the gay wrappings, the commercialization of Christmas that we come to think of it only in objective terms. We see only the objects that have been given us—gifts that have size, shape, weight, color, texture and value.

But, perhaps, the most valuable presents of all are the ones that are not quite so obvious, or that we don't see at all—the friendship, the loyalty, the self-sacrifice of people all over the world, and the divine gifts that cannot be evaluated by ordinary standards.

Maybe Christmas is a good time to count our blessings—our unseen gifts. Maybe that gift is not good health; it may only be better health. Maybe it's not freedom from want, but only fewer needs. Maybe it's not complete freedom from worry and fear, but only less cause for anxiety.

Certainly the nations of the earth have been making hydrogen bombs and nuclear weapons of tremendous destructive power, but they haven't yet begun dropping them on innocent people, and that is something to be thankful for, a blessing from the Prince of Peace.

Christmas to me is a time to come home, a time of happy side-by-side enjoyment with family and friends, a time to give gifts to others, a time to be thankful for every gift received, temporal or spiritual, and a time to thank God for the gift of His Son.

Condon Resigns Research Position, Declares He'd Be Denied Fair Judgment

CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 13 (AP)—Dr. Edward U. Condon, the subject of repeated government security investigations, resigned today as research director for the Corning Glass Works.

Condon, whose security clearance was suspended by the Navy in October, is the former chief of the U. S. Bureau of Standards.

He was once described by a congressional committee as the "weakest link" in the nation's atomic security chain—a charge he has vigorously denied.

Corning Glass released a statement in which he said he felt he would be denied "fair and independent judgment" in the current review of his security status.

His resignation was effective immediately. He left over the weekend for California, where he plans to live and work in Berkeley.

Condon said Condon was withdrawing his application for government clearance and resigning because he "recognizes that his continuance in an unclear status impairs his usefulness to the company as director of research and development."

In Washington, the Pentagon announced that in view of the resignation no hearing need now be held to review the case. "The matter will be closed," Gen. Counsel Wilbur M. Brucker of the Defense Department said.

Condon's statement said the Eastern Industrial Personnel Security Board had granted him full clearance to classified information on July 12 after a hearing. Condon said he does considerable work of a classified nature for the Navy.

"On Oct. 21, 1954," the Condon statement said, "the secretary of the Navy, Charles Thomas, announced that he had asked the board to reconsider its decision and had suspended my clearance."

"At the present time, I do not feel there is any possibility of my securing a fair and independent judgment in a reconsideration..."

Condon said the personnel security board had before it "reports of investigations stretching over 11 to 14 years, since I worked on highly secret defense problems for the government over a period from 1940 to 1951."

Condon declared that his loyalty had been "clearly and formally established" and the current proceedings raised "no question on that score."

Condon's name has figured in security inquiries since the House Un-American Activities Committee accused him, while he was director of the Bureau of Standards in 1948, of associating with Russian spies.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (AP)—Postmaster General Summerfield said today the administration will renew its request for a postal rate increase to the next Congress, including a hike to 4 cents on letter mail.

The postmaster general told newsmen this when he came from a White House briefing of Republican congressional leaders on the program to be presented to the session convening Jan. 5.

Summerfield said the postal rate bill to be sent to Congress next year would provide for about the same increases which were sought unsuccessfully in the 1953 and 1954 sessions. These increases would have totaled about 234 million dollars annually.

In addition to the penny boost on letter mail the request included a hike to 7 cents on airmail, as well as increases in second class mail covering newspapers and magazines and third class mail which largely consists of advertising circulars.

President To Ask Postponement Of Corporate, Excise Tax Cuts

U. N. Leader Undismayed By Broadcast

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Dec. 13 (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld was undismayed today at Red Chinese blasts at the U. N. for what Peiping called "illegal" interference in the case of 11 American aviators jailed as spies.

He was reported still hopeful for a talk with the Peiping Reds. Persons close to Hammarskjöld said he did not feel a Peiping radio broadcast this morning amounted to rejection of his suggestion for a face-to-face talk with Prime Minister Chou En-lai in Peiping on the prisoner question.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief American delegate, told a newsman he also was not discouraged. He said the Peiping broadcast was "routine."

"I think what we need is a period of silence to give this man (Hammarskjöld) a chance to work," Lodge said. "He knows what he is doing and it is better if everyone keeps still and lets him do the job."

The Red radio, at the end of a long editorial from the Peiping Peoples Daily, the official Communist organ, said that the "United Nations has no right to interfere with China's sentencing of the American spies."

"United Nations discussion of this question under American manipulation is both illegal and unjust," the radio said.

A later broadcast by the Red radio mentioned the subject again in similarly harsh terms and for the second time did not mention Hammarskjöld's message.

Neither broadcast mentioned the Assembly's resolution, which also condemned Red China for sentencing the spies.

It was reported here that Hammarskjöld did not expect an immediate reply. He was represented as feeling a matter of this high importance would take time before the Communist Chinese would chart their course.

U. N. officials said that omission of any reference to the secretary general's proposal indicated that the question still was under consideration.

In addition to the direct message to Chou which was sent Friday, Hammarskjöld was believed to be working through Swedish and Indian channels. Both countries have diplomatic missions in Peiping.

Hammarskjöld formerly was No. 2 man in the Swedish Foreign Office. He is scheduled to go to Stockholm this weekend to take the seat in the Swedish Academy of Literature held by his late father. If Peiping accepts his bid for direct talks while he is in Stockholm, he could easily fly from there to the Red Chinese capital.

Mishap Calls Attention To Safe Driving Day

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 13 (AP)—Michael Gasper was driving past an intersection last night when a sign fell from a traffic station and dented the auto hood.

Gasper examined the sign. It was a reminder to motorists and pedestrians that Wednesday is "Safe Driving Day."

U. N. Cannot Bargain With Red China So It's Up To U. S. To Deal For Release Of Fliers

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

What the United States needs to get those imprisoned fliers out of Red China is to find something which the Communists want and which can be granted.

The Peiping reaction to United Nations action is just what was expected. It is always been the same when foreigners are imprisoned behind the Iron Curtain. The Reds claim the right to determine who is a criminal and what the punishment shall be, and any interference from outside is impudence.

There never has been much hope that the Reds, if they could ignore a United Nations resolution branding them as aggressors, would pay any attention to anything less.

That does not mean, necessarily, that they will refuse to talk to Secretary General Hammarskjöld, or that the fliers will not be released. There is a certain amount of Oriental "face" to be made out of

Deer Hunter Shoots Arm Accidentally

THE OPENING of the New Jersey deer hunting season brought only misery yesterday to Donald McKinley, 23, of Phillipsburg RD 2. The hunter is resting comfortably in East Stroudsburg's General Hospital after accidentally shooting himself in the right arm.

An operation was performed yesterday afternoon and doctors felt the arm would be saved. The buck shot blast from a 12-gauge single-barrel shotgun smashed the bone just above the elbow causing a contusion of the nerves, a slight paralysis of the hand, muscle damage and a considerable loss of blood. The hand paralysis is expected to disappear shortly, doctors said.

McKinley's condition was described as "fair" following the operation. He was hunting in the Worthington tract in Pahaquarry Township. The accident occurred when McKinley was resting on the side of a mountain at 9:25 a. m. The gun was leaning against him when his foot slipped and the gun went off shattering the back of his arm.

Hunting companions rushed him to the hospital. State Police at Washington, N. J., are investigating the accident.

President Pays Special Tribute To Reporters

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (AP)—The American reporter, President Eisenhower said tonight, is a "valiant warrior for the truth that makes men free."

The President paid this tribute to reporters during a 90-minute television show climaxing the dedication of his new building to men who died abroad searching for news.

"We are here tonight to salute the eyes and ears of our free nation—the men and women of our free press," Eisenhower said in a specially recorded speech for the "spectacular," entitled "Dateline."

During daylong ceremonies, former presidents of the organization of foreign correspondents unveiled the 82 members who have died in line of duty.

The board's decision was announced today by Guy Emery, a retired colonel who served as Dickinson's civilian counsel in his court-martial, and later confirmed by the Army. Emery said the case would be appealed to the Civilian U. S. Court of Military Appeals.

Dickenson is now in an Army stockade at New Cumberland, Pa. He is the Cracker's Neck, Va., farm boy who first elected to stay in Korea with the Communists, but later changed his mind and came over in the prisoner of war exchange. He denied the collaboration charge.

Emery said the review board upheld 2-0 five of six charges in the general court holding that Dickinson collaborated with his Communist captors to win favors for himself. He said it split 2-1 in upholding the charge that Dickinson informed on the escape plans of a fellow POW, Edward Gaither of Philadelphia.

The Army said the review board also had upheld a sentence of dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances after Dickinson has served his 10 year prison term.

Taylor Wins Tentative Endorsement

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HERSHEY, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Sen. M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) tonight won tentative Republican endorsement for a sixth term as Senate president pro tempore.

The endorsement, announced to newsmen as "unanimous" actually was not conclusive. Two Republican senators—George M. Wade (Cumberland) and Harold E. Flack (Luzerne) said they withheld their support of Taylor.

"We refused to be bound by the caucus action on the Taylor decision," Wade said after a two-hour caucus of Republican senators who will sit in the 1955 Legislature.

A defection by either Wade or Flack when the Senate is organized Jan. 4 could mean Democratic control of the upper branch. The Senate president—pro tempore names committees and their chairmen.

The Nov. 2 general election gave Republicans 27 seats in the 30-member Senate. Democrats won 23 seats. The GOP can count, however, on only 26 votes since Sen. John C. Miller (Beaver) has promised to go with the Democrats.

Twenty-five GOP senators took part in the caucus that also saw Sen. Rowland B. Mahony (Crawford) elected Republican floor leader for a second term.

Sen. James S. Berger (Potter) dropped his candidacy for the post before the meeting began and later was re-elected caucus chairman. Sen. Arthur C. Blass (Erie) was the only absentee but his proxy went along with the majority on all decisions.

Both Wade and Flack, considered allies of Gov. John S. Fine, joined in the unanimous decision on Mahony as well as other offices of the Senate except president pro tempore.

Taylor went into the caucus with the backing of U. S. Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa) but the governor has been on the opposite side of the political fence from Taylor and Duff for nearly four years.

Flack, asked afterward if he planned to vote with the Democrats on reorganization, said: "Not once in a million would I vote Democratic but there is always that once."

Wade, however, insisted he would vote with the Republicans Jan. 4 but declined comment if he would vote against Taylor at that time.

Senate officers endorsed by the caucus include Sen. Albert R. Peach (Armstrong) for party whip; G. Harold Watkins, Frackville, for Senate secretary; J. Fred Thomas, Sharon, for chief clerk; Charles L. Lathero, Altoona, for librarian; and S. Edward Hanesbatt, Glen Oiden, for director of the legislative reference bureau.

Army Upholds Dickenson's Prison Term

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (AP)—An Army Board of Review has upheld the 10-year prison sentence for Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson, 23, convicted of collaborating with the enemy while he was a prisoner in Korea.

The board's decision was announced today by Guy Emery, a retired colonel who served as Dickinson's civilian counsel in his court-martial, and later confirmed by the Army. Emery said the case would be appealed to the Civilian U. S. Court of Military Appeals.

Dickenson is now in an Army stockade at New Cumberland, Pa. He is the Cracker's Neck, Va., farm boy who first elected to stay in Korea with the Communists, but later changed his mind and came over in the prisoner of war exchange. He denied the collaboration charge.

Emery said the review board upheld 2-0 five of six charges in the general court holding that Dickinson collaborated with his Communist captors to win favors for himself. He said it split 2-1 in upholding the charge that Dickinson informed on the escape plans of a fellow POW, Edward Gaither of Philadelphia.

The Army said the review board also had upheld a sentence of dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances after Dickinson has served his 10 year prison term.

Litts Undergoes Operation For Removal Of Lower Leg Following Hunting Accident

JOHN C. LITTS, Monroe County superintendent of schools, underwent an amputation of the left lower leg yesterday.

The leg was shattered just under the knee Nov. 29 in a hunting accident. Litts had been at Monroe County General Hospital since then.

The operation was performed late yesterday morning. The leg was removed at the knee. Litts' condition was reported satisfactory, and physicians said his recovery from this point on should be rapid.

Hospital authorities said circulation in the leg had been disrupted and was not enough to keep the leg "alive." The limb was badly mangled and infected, authorities said.

The situation was explained to the superintendent and Litts agreed to the operation, it was reported. The accident occurred while Litts, 54, of Scotrun, was hunting with a party on the opening day of deer season near White Oak Run in Pocono Township.

Game Protector John Doebbing said the shot, from a high-powered rifle, was fired by Calvin Kresge, Tannersville, who was aiming at a buck.

The accident was the worst in Monroe County during deer season, which closed Saturday. There were no fatalities in the county this year.

Dr. Samuel Sheppard Tells Of Three Other Women In His Life Before Slaying

CLEVELAND, Dec. 13 (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard told in halting question and answer style today of three women in his life, before his wife's murder. One he dated, one he kissed, one he made love to.

The serious affair was with Susan Hayes. The 30-year-old osteopath also testified his 31-year-old wife, Marilyn, lost "sexual aggressiveness" after the birth of their son Chip, now a 7-year-old. She worried, he added, that she was "losing my attention."

However, Dr. Sheppard said: "There was no question in my mind of divorce or separation."

Dr. Sheppard is on trial, charged with murdering his wife last July 4.

At the end of the court day, Dr. Sheppard was under heavy attack on his story of the actual slaying, which he blames on a marauding stranger. Outwardly, his composure held up. But his voice sank very low as he met question upon question with an "I don't know... I can't give a clear picture... I don't remember... I'm not positive... I don't recall."

Asst. Prosecutor John J. Mahon had Dr. Sheppard describe how he used to take Miss Hayes home when the 24-year-old beauty was a laboratory technician in his hospital in 1952.

"You had intimate relations with her, didn't you?" Mahon asked.

"Yes, sir," replied Dr. Sheppard, confirming for the first time in the long trial Miss Hayes' story of a 15-months illicit romance.

When Miss Hayes went to California last February, Dr. Sheppard testified, she left with her address and telephone number. He said he went to Los Angeles in March and for at least five days, shared the same bedroom with Susan in the Glendale home of friends.

Dr. Sheppard also testified about a kissing date with Mrs. Julie Lossman in 1952.

She was the 27-year-old wife of a dealer who sold him a Jaguar sports car.

He told of an outing to a Lake Erie resort the same year, when he and Mrs. Lossman took a long walk. When they returned, Mrs. Lossman's husband, Robert, was so upset he slapped his wife.

"Mr. Lossman said he didn't believe anything had gone on between me and Mrs. Lossman," Sheppard added, "but wouldn't blame me if it had. And he believed it was a woman's place to draw the line."

The osteopath said Marilyn felt Mrs. Lossman was "too attentive towards me and felt I didn't push Mrs. Lossman away as much as I should, felt I was too receptive."

"She felt," Dr. Sheppard continued, "we ought not to attend social events the Lossmans attended as often, and I agreed."

The woman he dated was Margaret Kalzor, a Los Angeles girl Sheppard testified he saw in 1950 when Marilyn was back in Cleveland.

The six-foot, boyish defendant claims Marilyn was slain by a bushy haired prowler who twice beat him into unconsciousness.

GOP Weighs Legislative Proposals

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (AP)—A big chunk of President Eisenhower's legislative program was laid before Republican congressional leaders today including, one of them said, a plan to postpone about three billion dollars in tax relief scheduled for next year.

The congressional informant, who declined to be quoted by name, reported the administration will ask the new, 84th Congress to extend the present corporate income tax rate of 52 per cent and existing excises on automobiles, alcoholic beverages and other big selling items.

Sharp cuts in these taxes are scheduled to go into effect April 1 unless Congress acts.

The GOP leaders met with Eisenhower and members of his Cabinet for 6 hours and 15 minutes at the White House.

Sen. Knowland of California, the party's leader in the Senate, described the session as "very constructive and harmonious," and Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, retiring speaker of the House, added: "We hope the program will be enacted."

A statement issued by the White House after the conference did not mention the administration's reported decision to seek a postponement of the tax cuts, although it said the government's fiscal situation was discussed.

The statement disclosed there was preliminary discussion of these and other proposals the President will submit to Congress in January:

1. Extension of the Defense Production Act and the law providing for reorganization of executive agencies.

2. Continuation of the Small Business Administration.

3. Statehood for Hawaii (shelved by the last Congress).

4. Increased presidential authority to cut tariffs.

5. A 10-year multimillion-dollar program of highway building.

6. Wage adjustments for the federal service and elimination of inequities in pay scales in the postal service.

7. Revision of the Constitution to lower the voting age to 18 or thereabouts—rejected by the last Congress.

The administration's tax decision was reported in the wake of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey's announcement a week ago that the budget cannot be balanced for the fiscal year beginning July 1. A deficit of about 4 1/2 billion dollars is in prospect for the current fiscal year.

It has been generally expected that the administration would be forced to call for postponement of tax cuts. Some important segments of industry may support the move.

The Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council, made up of the heads of more than 100 of the country's biggest corporations, was reported to be viewing the postponement sympathetically.

In New York, Henry C. Riter 3rd, president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers, said "businessmen everywhere were counting on the scheduled corporate tax cut" which he said would "lessen the tax drag on the national economy and the job-making process."

"So it is a sore disappointment to hear that the administration will oppose this needed tax reduction," Riter added. "We feel that the continued higher rates may prove discouraging to the economy when our growing population will need approximately one million new jobs a year."

Unless Congress agrees on an extension, the corporation tax rate will drop from 52 per cent to 47 April 1, costing the Treasury about two billion dollars a year in revenue.

Reductions are also scheduled for the excise tax rates on such big sellers as gasoline, cigarettes, whisky, wine, beer, automobiles and trucks.

Actor Fined After Accident

WEST LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13 (AP)—Actor Broderick Crawford paid a $250 fine on a drunk charge today in West Los Angeles Municipal Court.

He was arrested early yesterday in Mandeville Canyon with actor Myron McCormick and actress Abigail Adams, who were expected in court later today or tomorrow. Police said their rented car had hit a fence.

Postmaster Asks Public Cooperation

STROUDSBURG Postmaster Fred Rhodes has issued a request for local residents to aid the Christmas rush season at the postoffice by wrapping mail for the borough of Stroudsburg separately. All mail for East Stroudsburg and surrounding areas should be bundled together as out-of-town mail.

Rhodes said the postoffice had distributed forms urging a division of mail. He remarked: "The people have cooperated very well with this plan to separate the mail with the exception that all mail for nearby towns had been wrapped as mail for Stroudsburg."

The volume of mail at this time shows a considerable increase over other years for this early in the season, said Rhodes. A few temporary employees have been hired and more will be added in the near future, he added.

The letter drop slots at the postoffice have been redesignated for Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg and Out-of-Town. But mail for East Stroudsburg already packaged may be sent out-of-town. A special window is in use to receive letters tied in bundles, packages or in boxes. It is located near the mail slots.

Rhodes announced a new plan to go in effect Wednesday for the convenience of the public. A mailing window will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. for the purchase of stamps and mailing of parcel post. This practice will continue through Dec. 23.

Every employee with as much as six months' service will receive part of the annual fund voted by the company's board of directors. Distribution is scheduled for Dec. 17.

Rev. Alton Albright Resigns Pleasant Valley Charge To Accept Warwick Pastorate

GILBERT—Rev. Alton Albright, pastor of the Pleasant Valley Evangelical and Reformed Church since 1949 announced Sunday that he will resign from the pastorate effective March 1.

Rev. Albright has accepted a call to Warwick, Lancaster County. He will make his home at nearby Lititz, Pa.

Included in the Pleasant Valley Charge are these churches: Jerusalem at Trachsville, Salem here, and St. John's at Effort.

The Warwick charge consists of two churches. One of Rev. Albright's immediate tasks will be to participate in a building program with one of the congregations.

He came to the Pleasant Valley Charge in July, 1949, two months after the Salem Church of the charge was destroyed by fire.

Joining immediately with the congregation in a plan to rebuild, Rev. Albright led the group in a highly successful building program.

Ground for the new church, estimated to be worth about $225,000 with furnishings—was broken in June, 1950.

The attractive native stone structure was dedicated last September 26. It is of colonial design and has a seating capacity of 275.

Actual cash expenditures on the structure amounted to about $78,000. Much of the material and labor for the large building was contributed by members and friends.

The Pleasant Valley Charge has a membership of 650 with Jerusalem in Trachsville, Carbon County having the major share.

Rev. Albright is a native of Akron. He observed the 25th anniversary of his ordination in June, 1933.

Prior to accepting the Pleasant Valley Charge he served as pastor of the Lynnfield-Shenkel Charge.

He was graduated from Schuyl-

Wednesday Proclaimed 'S-D Day' By Burgesses

THE BURGESSES of Monroe County's four boroughs yesterday proclaimed Wednesday, Dec. 15 as "Safe-Driving Day" and pledged the full support of their governments in making the project a success.

They urged all citizens to do their utmost to keep their communities entirely free of accidents on Wednesday.

Issuing the proclamation were Burgesses Hal H. Harris, Stroudsburg; Jesse S. Flory, East Stroudsburg; Gerald Possinger, Mount Pocono; Ben Wiberg, Delaware Water Gap.

"S-D Day" is sponsored by the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety in cooperation with various national organizations, and state and local officials. It is a day to demonstrate that traffic accidents can be reduced materially when all motorists and pedestrians do their part.

Following is the proclamation: "Whereas the President of the United States has asked all Americans to unite in a nationwide demonstration that traffic accidents can be avoided if all motorists and pedestrians do their part; and

"Whereas the Governor of Pennsylvania has asked all of the communities in the State to support this worthy effort; hereby proclaim Wednesday, Dec. 15 as "S-D Day" in the community and ask all citizens to drive and walk on this day so as to keep the entire 24-hour period free of traffic accidents.

Fred H. Rhodes, local director, pointed out that last year there was an injury in traffic in the United States every 24 seconds. A total of 1,350,000 persons were injured to the point where they were disabled beyond the day of the accident. The price we paid for these accidents, in terms of medical expense, property damage and other costs was roughly $4 million.

"On this day, Dec. 15," he said, "let us all do the very best we can to give our attention to these things:

"1. Observe the letter and spirit of all traffic regulations.

"2. Be courteous to every driver and pedestrian—practice sportsmanship.

"3. Give full attention to driving and walking.

"In short: Drive and walk as you would have everyone else drive and walk. If we can do this on just one day, perhaps we'll realize how important it is to do likewise every day."

A Determined Effort

Tomorrow is "S-D Day" throughout the nation.

Safe Driving Day is a test of the principle that there is no such thing as an unavoidable accident.

Sponsored by the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety "S-D Day" calls on each individual to make a conscious effort for a 24 hour period to avoid traffic accidents.

That means those who drive motor vehicles and every pedestrian are joined in a common effort against a common enemy—the traffic accident toll.

There have been days in the Pocono Mountains region without a single traffic accident—days when the individual exercised normal caution without a conscious effort.

Tomorrow the effort is to be a determined one—a day when all citizens are to drive and walk so as to keep the entire 24 hours free of accidents.

It should be easy, if each of us keep our mind on that single thought.

Sixth Killer Disease!

What has happened to tuberculosis?

Fifty years ago people didn't talk about it. Then it was shameful.

Today people don't talk about it. They think medical science has conquered it.

The facts are that TB is still sixth among the killer diseases in the United States.

There's no reason for complacency about TB.

There are at least 150 thousand unknown bearers of deadly TB infection walking around today.

No one knows where or among whom this deadly infection exists.

The Monroe County Tuberculosis Society wages a day-in-day-out fight to prevent the spread of TB through sound detection principles—largely based on a county-wide X-ray service.

In order to enhance that effort your TB Society is purchasing an X-ray machine which will provide chest X-ray for every person admitted to General Hospital. It will be used in an expanded detection program to reach other groups.

The Christmas Seals you received some weeks ago from your TB Society are the sole means the organization has to finance this work.

The few dollars you pay for those seals may save the lives of some of your fellow Monroe Countians.

Don't delay another minute. Make your returns for those Christmas Seals. Use them to remind others to make their return promptly.

George Sokolsky Says...

Soviet Foreign Policy Is Simply Program For World Revolution And Conquest By Idea

Soviet Foreign Policy

Nothing has been more clear in this troubled world than the Soviet foreign policy. Stalin in his "Leninism" wrote:

"The victory of Socialism in one country is not an end in itself; it must be looked upon as a support, as a means for hastening the proletarian victory in every other land. For the victory of the revolution in one country (in Russia) for the nonce) is not only the result of the unequal development and the progressive decay of imperialism; it is likewise the beginning and the continuation of the world revolution."

A most interesting guide to the foreign policy of Soviet Russia and for that matter to the foreign policies of every Soviet state appears in the "Conditions of Admission to the Communist International" (usually called the Third International or Comintern). There are some 21 conditions. I shall quote two:

"2. The class struggle in almost every country of Europe and America is entering the phase of civil war. Under such conditions the Communists can have no confidence in bourgeois laws. They should create everywhere a parallel illegal apparatus, which at the decisive moment should be of assistance to the party to do its duty toward the revolution..."

"5. Every party desirous of affiliating to the Third International should renounce not only avowed social patriotism, but also the falsehood and the hypocrisy of social pacifism; it should systematically demonstrate to the workers that without a revolutionary overthrow of capitalism no international arbitration, no talk of disarmament, no democratic reorganization of the League of Nations will be capable of saving mankind from new imperialist wars."

In a document published in 1928, by the Sixth World Congress, the Communists adopted the thesis:

"The ultimate aim of the Communist International is to replace world capitalist economy by a world system of Communism. Communist society, the basis for which has been prepared by the whole course of historical development, is mankind's only way out. For it alone can abolish the contradictions of the capitalist system which threatens to degrade and destroy the human race."

Lenin wrote:

"The dictatorship of the proletariat is the fiercest, most acute and most merciless war of the new class against the more powerful enemy, against the bourgeoisie, whose resistance is increased tenfold by its overthrow."

"The dictatorship of the proletariat is a persistent struggle—sanguinary and bloodless, violent and peaceful, military and economic, educational and administrative, against the forces and traditions of the old society."

On this thesis, Stalin commented:

"It need hardly be emphasized that there is not the slightest possibility of accomplishing these tasks in a short period of time, within a few years. We must, therefore, regard the dictatorship of the proletariat, the transition from capitalism to communism, not as a fleeting period replete

Best Way To Avoid Accident Is To Stay Away From Cars

I am seriously considering locking the family car in the garage, sealing the key in a self-addressed envelope and dropping the envelope in the nearest mail box.

Wednesday, as surely nobody doesn't know at this juncture, is Safe Driving Day. Under the whip of the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety and allied organizations a nation-wide effort is being made to sweat out a whole 24-hour period without a single traffic accident.

This is another "experiment noble in conception" and I am for it. I am not betting any money on it and I have my fingers crossed, but it would be a heathening thing if the 55-odd million motorists in this country could go 24 hours without running into anybody or anything.

It will be no mean stunt if they do it. On the basis of the record they'll be breaking paralyzing some 10 million accidents into a little over 31½ million seconds in 1933.

But the American people can do wonders when they put their minds to it, and I can believe they have it in them to go a full day without an automobile accident.

What concerns me is the possibility that they will get all the way through Wednesday with only ONE accident.

This possibility is pretty awful to contemplate. I am a prudent man. Although I can't say I have a passion for anonymity, neither do I have any great yen for notoriety.

So if it should come to pass that the nation missed a clean slate by just one measly bungled-up fender, I am not about to get my picture on page one from coast to coast as Old Butterfingers, the luncheon who lapsed on the record.

Somebody in this country may find himself on that hot spot, come Thursday. It is not going to be me if I can help it.

The best way I know to help it is to stay out of that car for 24 hours. My driving hasn't been too bad up to date, but it is never safer than when I'm not doing any.

I know how the thought of that painful publicity would affect me. I'd be so nervous I couldn't hold onto the wheel and I'd have that automobile up a tree within the first 200 yards.

Something tells me, therefore, that the smart course is to put the thing in drydock for the duration of S-D day and leave the harassing of pedestrians to others.

It strikes me that this might be the smartest course for the others, too. If everybody were to lay off driving for 24 hours they'd see how important to them the privilege is.

Who knows? They might even appreciate it enough to learn how to use it sensibly.

Try and Stop Me

Charles Lederer, in New York to count the millions he's making from his production of the musical play hit, "Kismet," sheepishly admitted the authenticity of one of the funniest anecdotes in Ben Hecht's "A Child of the Century." Dining at the elegant Colony Restaurant in New York, with a glamorous musical-comedy queen he was wooing, Charlie sat listening obediently to a lecture from her on how he must mend his careless ways. Getting up at noon and climbing into any ill-assorted articles of clothing that happened to be at hand, she insisted, was not the proper way to live. As the beautiful lady concluded her discourse, Lederer, who had not seemingly spellbound, arose and handed her—his trousers! He had removed them surreptitiously during her lecture.

"Here," he proposed, "you wear these," and walked coldly out of the restaurant in his shorts.

Robert S. Allen Reports

U. S. Hydrogen Bombs Keep Russia From Starting War

Washington, Dec. 13—One factor is primarily deterring Russia from war—the preponderant hydrogen-military strength of the U. S.

Continuance of world peace rests chiefly on this catalytic striking power.

The attitude of the new Kremlin rulers toward this country has not changed one iota. Their hatred is as virulent and deep-seated as Stalin's. Like the late tyrant, they too consider the U. S. the foremost Soviet enemy.

But they respect American atomic and hydrogen superiority more than ever before.

This decisive fear not only is straining the Reds from attempting new aggressions, but it is greatly influencing both their domestic and foreign policies and tactics.

"Hot war is not imminent, but Stalinism remains the same. It merely has a new face, for the time being."

This was one of the main views expressed by Ambassador Charles Bohlen at a private conference with members of the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The meeting with this bipartisan group was a part of Bohlen's consultations with President Eisenhower, Secretary Dulles and other leaders on significant Iron Curtain trends and developments.

These inner council discussions are of far-reaching moment.

They importantly explain the recent White House pronouncements on peace, co-existence with the Communist empire, and other controversial foreign issues.

"Moscow's Strategy"—In Ambassador Bohlen's talk with the senators, he stressed Moscow's profound dread of hydrogen warfare.

"There is increasing evidence," the career diplomat reported, "that the hydrogen bomb is tremendously affecting Soviet policies at home and abroad. Major changes in both spheres can be positively traced to this factor, starting in August 1953, when the first Russian hydrogen test occurred."

Bohlen stated that all the top Kremlin chiefs, including Malenkov, have personally witnessed thermonuclear explosions. Also that they have made no secret of the terrifying impact that had on them.

"These admissions are of utmost significance," Bohlen said. "And so is the fact that they have permitted certain party writers to let the Russian people know how destructive hydrogen war would be. They have pictured that in the most unvarnished terms."

But while the Soviet rulers have not minimized the fearfulness of nuclear war, there has been no change in their beliefs and aims. Merely a "new face."

"Those in power in Moscow are attempting to put a new face on Stalinism in an effort to sell it to the backward countries and to split the Western alliance," said Bohlen. "Open aggression is out, for a while anyway but the pressures will continue in sensitive areas, Asia, Japan, Africa, Latin America, the Near East and Germany."

"Not all of these pressures will be military. The emphasis now is on economic pressures, internal subversion, and the peace offensive that is being so vigorously pushed in their propaganda and through various diplomatic channels. That is the strategy they are now concentrating on."

In line with the Kremlin's "peace offensive," Bohlen foresaw the possibility of finally securing an agreement on the Austrian peace treaty which has been blocked for years.

"The way may be cleared for that by this new alliance the Russians have just put through with their satellites," he explained. "That alliance will enable the Soviet to keep troops in those countries, thus eliminating the main obstacle to Moscow's approving the Austrian pact. That would require withdrawing the Red Army from the satellites, but under the new military alliance those countries agreed to let Russians stay."

Bohlen stated Russia is still being ruled by a "committee" of Stalin's successors.

Of this group, Premier Malenkov appears to be the most powerful, but he does not have a free hand. Authority is divided between him and others, and the struggle for control among them is unabated with no indications who is winning out.

Bohlen also told the senators: There are significant signs the much-publicized "honeymoon between the new rulers and the Russian people" will end next year; and that various economic concessions that have been granted will be withdrawn. However, while "great stresses and strains" exist throughout the land, there are no indications of a mass revolt.

In the Kremlin's fear of an hydrogen war, some checks have been applied on Red China.

Senate Republican Floor Leader William Knowland, who participated in this private meeting, questioned Bohlen at length on various aspects of his report. Throughout Knowland was friendly, and asked no hostile questions. His inquiries were directed entirely at seeking information.

The Californian particularly questioned Bohlen on whether the U. S. should negotiate with the Reds. Bohlen replied emphatically in the affirmative.

"We should continue to do that for two reasons," he declared. "First, because only through such negotiations will it be possible to expose the true nature of the Russians' schemes and professions. Second, in order to convince the world of the sincerity of our peaceful aims and policies."

Parking Research Important

—by H. G. Heller

Research is responsible for most of the good things in life today; the thermostat that keeps the heat at just the right temperature in our houses; those unbreakable dishes that Junior can bounce to his heart's content on the kitchen floor, that little device on your steering wheel that enables you to drive your car without shifting gears.

And, although you may not think that research is concerned with the matter of parking cars, it is—vitality. The National Parking Association, an organization of alert businessmen who have placed the parking industry today in the $3.5 billion financial bracket, are more concerned with workable innovations than any group of men in the country.

Parking is a young business and the parking men themselves are the first to admit that it has had its share of growing pains. They have had to learn much of what they know today via the trial-and-error method and at the risk of their own capital. But the point is that they have learned.

One sure source of knowledge has been listening to the complaint of customers, then doing something about them. And this matter of "doing something" often turned out to be a large scale enterprise.

The National Parking Association membership—all of the private enterprise type—have formed a rigid code of ethics with customer service as their byword.

The organization recently completed a survey of parking facility operations and came up with the astonishing fact that private enterprise today provides for 94 percent of the off-street parking in major cities of the nation.

The remainder, naturally, is municipally operated, either by the governing municipal body, an authority or a specific parking authority.

Locally, the Stroudsburg Businessmen's Association has just completed assembling a complete study of parking operations as they function in Pennsylvania.

Most of the data deals with the municipal parking operation—or the authority-type of parking system.

All this information has been carefully studied by a special committee of the association preliminary to its presentation to Stroudsburg Council.

Council has been working with merchants for several months on parking, gathering a great deal of information of its own. A meeting is now imminent on setting in motion a parking project.

Snyder Pleads Guilty To Failing To Stop At Crash Scene

Defendant Fined In Hoffner Death

A TRIAL in connection with the traffic death of Amzi Hoffner of Brodheadsville was avoided yesterday when Glenn J. Snyder pleaded guilty to failing to stop at an accident scene.

An earlier charge against Snyder—involuntary manslaughter—was dismissed by the grand jury last week. But the jury returned an indictment against Snyder, 28, of Kunkletown RD2, on the hit-run charge.

Hoffner, 73, was killed by a car as he walked along Route 209 toward his home in Brodheadsville the night of Nov. 32. Snyder later told police of feeling "a bump" as though his car had struck "a rabbit" or "game" of some sort at about the time Hoffner was hit.

He had failed to stop then, he said, but returned later to see if anything had been hit.

Snyder was fined $200 and $43.90 in costs by President Judge Fred W. Davis. The West End man was represented by Forrest J. Mervine, while Elmer D. Christine served the State.

Snyder paid the fine and was released.

Two other criminal cases were handled as the first—and last—day of December trial court opened.

First case scheduled was that of Ronald T. Morton of New York on charges of failing to support an illegitimate child. A Monroe County woman was prosecutor.

The Morton case was called by Christine—but no Morton appeared.

The crier called his name in court and corridor, but again no Morton.

Christine moved that Morton's bail be forfeited and that a warrant be issued to bring the man in. Court granted the motion and the wheels were set in motion in the prothonotary's office.

But before the warrant was issued Attorney James C. Scanlon appeared in the courtroom and said his client was present. They had been conferring in a room off the law library.

The court revoked the order on bail forfeit and warrant. It then appeared that trial would be ready to start, and Prothonotary James Gould prepared to call a jury.

But Morton decided to plead guilty. He was fined $25 and costs, and ordered to pay $5 a week to support of his child.

A petition of nolle prosequi was granted in the case of Morris Angle of New Jersey, charged with F and B by an East Stroudsburg woman. The decision by District Attorney Christine to decline to prosecute followed a private agreement reached between the man and the woman involved in the case.

Ex-Convict, Two Women Questioned

BRINKLEY, Ark. Dec. 13 (AP)—An ex-convict who served 13 years for burglary was jailed today, along with two women, for questioning in the bludgeoning slaying of pretty Mrs. Milton Fuller.

Police Chief Frank Henderson declined to disclose the identity of the man, but another officer told reporters, "we're a lot closer today than we were yesterday."

Mrs. Fuller, 25, was beaten to death with a piece of stove wood in the bedroom of her modest home here early Sunday morning. Officers believe the killer was a burglar who stole barefoot into the house on the rainy winter morning.

The two women being held were identified only as a mother and her daughter.

In back of the probe lay the hope that the dead socialite's daughter, five-year-old Mary Helen, could identify the killer.

"I saw the man hit mamma," the child told Chief Henderson.

The chief said he had not questioned the child further on this point. Mary Helen and her 31-year-old father met reporters this morning, but both broke down and couldn't answer questions.

All that Mary Helen could say was, "don't cry, daddy, don't cry."

Fuller, an automobile dealer in this town of 4,000 people, told the police that he was asleep in the living room of his home when his wife was killed. Mary Helen and her baby sister, 18-month-old Kathy, were in a bedroom which adjoined their mother's.

Officers are agreed that robbery was the motive of the crime, and believe that Mrs. Fuller was slugged with the heavy piece of wood when she awakened to find a prowler in her room. Her purse was stolen and found later in a tree near the Fuller home.

The search for the killer has centered around a tall man reported to be wearing a khaki overcoat and only one shoe.

Three newspaper carrier boys told Chief Henderson in separate interviews that they saw the man

Inspiration, Hard Work Held Key To Song-Writing Success

TOM WARING explained various factors of the song writing business to members of the Monroe County Manufacturers Association last night at the Penn-Stroud Hotel. Waring, who has been instrumental in the success of Waring Enterprises, was introduced by George Graff, program chairman, at the monthly meeting.

The speaker has written a number of songs. Among these is "Way Back Home." He mentioned that the ASCAP organization was the only means of actually protecting the song writers and seeing that he gets the royalties due him.

"Most songs are written by inspiration and a lot of hard work," commented Waring. He added, "It takes months to write one sometimes."

Waring told the group every song had four parts consisting of a pattern, a melody, release and picking of the title. But he could not explain the way to get a song published, having had considerable trouble of his own.

The guest stressed the fact of knowing the right people in getting a song published. He told of experiences in which publishers were willing to put a song on the market if his brother Fred would play it on television. "I would never agree to that kind of arrangement," stated Waring.

Waring named Jerome Kern as the greatest of all songwriters. He called Kern a tutored and learned writer and a polished musician who had written some of his famous songs in 15 minutes from inspiration.

Waring praised Irving Berlin's great natural ability but added: "He can't even play piano. He hums lyrics to others."

The association named Spencer Cramer and G. D. Hoffman as the nominating committee. The club will name its officers for 1955 at the January meeting.

William Osborn will be guest speaker at the next meeting. He will discuss incoming and outgoing freight in Monroe County and surrounding areas. Osborn has a plan to form a terminal to handle shipments and give 24-hour service to the factories.

near the Fuller home about the time of the slaying. A man who fitted their description later was seen walking along a railroad track north of town by a white farmer and a Negro woman.

Police believe the man pulled off his shoes before entering the house through the unlocked rear door. They found a footprint in the back yard of the house, and two other sets of muddy footprints were found in the kitchen. The prints were left by a barefoot man, and the newboys said the man they saw was wearing only one shoe.

Youth Reflects Environment, Says Speaker

IF U. S. ADULTS want to combat juvenile delinquency they can make a good beginning by improving the child's environment, Dutch Treat Club speaker Anne Laughlin said last night.

Miss Laughlin, a veteran of two generations in youth work and an overseas mission head for United Nations relief agencies for many years, told her adult audience that "youth cannot be segregated from the rest of the population."

Instead of considering young men and women as something apart from the society in which they live, she said, adults will do well to remember that "they reflect their environment" but that they had no hand in creating the community in which they live.

Today, she said, "we call our youth gadget-minded—but so are you, the adults." All of this, she went on, is part of a pattern we have fallen into of labeling each generation with a colorful tag.

"From 1910 to 1920 we called the generation the flaming youth of the day. From 1920 to 1930 the women were called flappers. In 1930 and 1940 we had 'depression youth' or the 'lost' generation," she continued.

"But from 1940 to 1950 we were in a war and there was no more 'lost' generation—the youth of the day became heroes," Miss Laughlin declared. "It's strange how much we're willing to do for youth in time of war and how little we do for them in peace."

Modern youth—the ones who went through the Second World War or Korea—and have come home to go through college on the G. I. Bill—"they're the ones I'm pinning my hopes on," she said. "This generation has something my generation never had."

So far as the younger people today are concerned, she said, the rise in juvenile delinquency may be due to increased population, to the tensions of the post-war world and to the movement of families from rural to urban areas where crime is already more prevalent.

To combat "delinquency" she urged adults to provide "good living conditions, good homes for families, jobs for residents and salaries for teachers" which would attract more and more qualified men and women to education as a career.

"The most important men and women in the United States are the school teachers," she said. "But each year business and industry are coming into our colleges and skimming off the cream of the crop."

There is a tendency, she said, to concentrate on new school buildings and "cellophane wrappings" in education.

"I don't care about new buildings. Let them sit on logs—but give them good teachers," she said.

Clean Range Means

A clean range looks and cooks better than one allowed to gather grease, spilled food, dust or rust, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture household specialists. For full, even, efficient heat, cleanliness is most important. Reflecting surfaces must be kept shining to do their job of throwing out heat.

$1,900 Theft Denied By Former Clerk

CRESCO — A former resort clerk was bound over to the grand jury here yesterday after pleading innocent to the larceny of about $1,900 in July, 1953.

He was John H. Jones, 29, Nanticoke, arrested when he returned to the north Monroe County area yesterday. He was taken in custody by Mount Pocono State police on the complaint of a resort operator in the Barrett area.

The clerk allegedly took the money from the cash drawer in the hotel's front office, where he was employed, police said.

Hearing last night was before Justice of the Peace Henry Price here. Bail was set at $2,000. Jones was committed to county jail in default of the bond.

Settlement Reached In Hofbrau Case

CIVIL COURT ended in Monroe County yesterday, the same day it began.

Juries disposed of three cases in which damages had to be assessed; and one directed verdict. One case was settled out of court.

The directed verdict was handed in as the windup of an appeal by the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission against a viewers' award of $47,500 to Louise Brandly, Delaware Water Gap, former operator of the Hofbrau there.

Counsel—Forrest J. Mervine for the operator and Elmer D. Christine for the commission—agreed on a settlement of $39,500 instead.

The Hofbrau was torn down to make way for the Delaware River Toll Bridge. Mrs. Brandly now operates the former Bellevue Hotel in the borough.

In the three damage assessment cases, the following awards were made to plaintiffs: Paul F. Shubick versus Kenneth Batzel, $408.52; Helen K. Cox versus A. A. Pritchard, $372.55; and Richard F. Metzgar versus Nicholas Botta, $363.33.

All were trespass actions, and George T. Robinson was counsel for each of the plaintiffs.

Jurors were dismissed for the December court term.

One study of 1,183 polio victims showed that 1,165 of them had brown or black eyes and brown or black hair while only one had blue eyes, blond hair and fair skin and only 17 had brown eyes combined with blond hair.

Early Delivery Of X-Ray Machine Gives Impetus To Christmas Seal Campaign

IMMINENT DELIVERY of the Monroe County Tuberculosis Society's $6,000 X-ray machine spurred efforts yesterday to get reminder cards out to some 4,331 individuals who have not yet made their returns for Christmas Seals.

Out of this year's seal sale funds, the TB Society will finance the X-ray machine which will be installed at General Hospital for the purpose of X-raying every person admitted and to provide X-rays for food handlers, other groups and organizations.

Christmas Seals finance the entire TB Society program to detect TB, still the nation's sixth ranking killer among communicable diseases.

It is because TB is carried by many who are unaware of it and because of the danger of infection of others that the directors of Monroe County TB Society moved to purchase the X-ray equipment as a service to all people in Monroe County.

The 3,769 persons out of 8,100 who were mailed Christmas Seals have given $6,363 towards the 1954 campaign.

A study of returns yesterday that complete returns from the remaining 4,331 persons on the same scale as the returns to date will provide adequate funds to bring X-ray equipment into operation as a major public service.

by Viet Nam as a sovereign state without outside influence," continued Vy, who had been acting chief of staff for several weeks.

President Eisenhower's special ambassador, Gen. J. Lawton Collins, is reliably reported to favor slashing the army from its present strength, which Vy placed at 220,000, to a streamlined, hard-hitting force of 90,000.

"Personally—and I emphasize that this is a personal opinion until the government has given its official views—I am against reducing the size of the army," Vy said in an interview. "We should maintain it at its present level, and make it more efficient."

The general's remarks were made a few minutes after he and Gen. Le Van Ty had taken over as inspector general and chief of staff, respectively, in a simple ceremony at military headquarters. Ty was present at the conversation and nodded agreement.

Christmas Memories

A Scrapbook Compiled by Clark Kinnaird

AT LEAST three of the most popular Christmas carols — It Came Upon the Midnight Clear, We Three Kings of Orient Are and O Little Town of Bethlehem — are of American origin. Phillips Brooks wrote the words of the latter while rector of Holy Trinity church, Philadelphia. A Christmas visit of his to Palestine in 1865 made an indelible impression and the verses came to his mind as he was preparing a Christmas program for the church school in 1868. The church organist, Louis Redner, whom he asked to provide a simple musical accompaniment for them, said that a week passed without his being able to think of a suitable air. Then he was awakened from a deep sleep by a melody he seemed to hear. He got up immediately to put the notes on paper; they are the air with which O Little Town of Bethlehem became a Christmas favorite.

*O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the year
Are met in thee to-night.*

*For Christ is born of Mary,
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.*

*How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him
The dear Christ enters in.*

*O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
Oh, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel!*

Phillips Brooks also wrote the poem, Everywhere, Everywhere, Christmas Tonight!

Stocks Move Irregularly; Volume Down

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (AP)—The stock market went through another of its inconclusive and irregular sessions today, this time on sharply reduced volume.

Prices spread over a rather narrow range of around 2 points in either direction.

The picture was distorted, however, by the emphasis on strength in a limited area.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad jumped ahead 8 1/4 at 147. Brokers found that investment buying was the basis for strong demand, but there was only a small supply of stock offered for sale. Coast Line opened on 1,000 shares at 143 and then hit a high of 147 1/4.

That helped to pull up the railroad component of the Associated Press average of 60 stocks by 80 cents while the industrial and utility components each fell 10 cents. The net result was a gain of 20 cents in the over-all average at $149.40. It was the first gain for the average in four sessions.

Volume dropped down to 2,750,000 shares, lowest since the first day of the big post-election bull market boom. There were 3,250,000 shares traded Friday.

A COLLECTION committee representing the sixth grade of Clearview School has completed a drive to collect pencils for the children of Europe with a total of 3,955. It was announced by supervising principal Rex Harding. Clarence Trantue is the teacher.

The collection was made throughout the school over a period of two weeks. The pencils will be sent to New York for further shipment. The drive began following an appeal in the class weekly reader called "Pencils Please."

The following students were members of the committee making the successful collection: Melissa Cramer, Sharon Jones, Michael McMahon, Samuel Strunk, Scott Horn, Harvey Keller and Edward Hendricks.

$8,171 Needed To Put Community Chest Drive Over Top

87 Per Cent Of $66,520 Quota Met

WITH $8,171.45 left to go before they reach their goal, Community Chest executive committee members met yesterday to draw up plans for a final appeal.

Funds subscribed so far in the current campaign total $58,348.55 or 87 per cent of the goal. The 1954-55 goal is $66,520.

Three of the nine divisions in this year's drive are now oversubscribed. It was announced at the meeting. These divisions are Professional, Residential and County.

The quota for the County Division was set at $2,595 for the current drive. Total county funds subscribed so far is $3,014.55 or $419.55 over the quota.

Residential subscriptions for Stroudsburg totaled $1,378.87 while East Stroudsburg residential totalled $733.13 for a combined total of $2,112 or $3 more than the $2,109 quota.

A quota of $7,399 was set for the Professional Division. The amount subscribed so far totals $7,400.55 or $1.55 more than the quota.

None of the other divisions has yet reached its quota although a few are only slightly under the amount needed in their area.

The quotas and total subscriptions for other divisions are as follows, according to Elton Hall, Chest president and Walter Wyckoff, campaign chairman:

Resorts—the quota is $7,854 of which $6,934.30 has been subscribed leaving a balance of $919.70 to go.

Industrial—has a $20,529 quota of which $15,666.38 is now subscribed leaving a balance of $4,862.62 still to be collected or pledged.

Trade—the quota is $12,450 while subscriptions now total $11,230.70 for a deficit of $1,219.30.

Public Service—the quota is $4,346 of which $3,580 has been subscribed leaving $766 to be subscribed.

Organizations—now has subscriptions totaling $1,100.17 out of its $1,224 quota with $123.83 still to go.

Barrett—the quota is $9,565 of which $7,310 has now been subscribed leaving a deficit of $2,255. The figure does not represent the total amount forthcoming from the township's contributing welfare fund groups, however, since one of these drives has not been completed.

During discussion of the final stages of the Chest drive yesterday the committee members indicated that numerous persons in the county had not yet been given an opportunity to subscribe to the Chest campaign.

For this reason, the members said, every effort should be made during the next week or more to contact these residents.

A meeting of members of the committee was set for Wednesday night of this week at the Chest office on Main St. to go over current records of the campaign.

Committee members also said that all persons who wish to contribute and have not had the chance should either contact the Chest office or mail their contributions to the Chest at 723 Main St., Stroudsburg.

$3 Million Fine Paid By Lloyds

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 13 (AP)—Lloyds of London today paid the three million dollar fine imposed on ship-ping magnate Aristotle Onassis' whaling fleet for operating in waters claimed by Peru.

Peruvian naval and air units last month seized five of Onassis' Panama-registered whalers, charging they were within the 200-mile limit this country claims as territorial waters. The whalers arrived yesterday under naval escort at Callao, eight miles west of Lima. A reliable source said Peru had warned Onassis it would confiscate the vessels and sell them at public auction if the fine were not paid.

Lloyds of London insured the fleet against confiscation.

Hubbell, Music Composer, Dies

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 13 (AP)—Raymond Hubbell, music composer who wrote "Poor Butterfly," died tonight after an illness of two weeks. He was 75.

His doctor said Hubbell suffered a stroke Nov. 28.

For many years he was a composer for stage productions in Chicago and New York and wrote the music for seven of the Ziegfeld Follies.

He was a native of Urbana, Ohio, but lived here for a number of years.

He is survived by his widow, Estelle. They had no children.

No Open Season On Boy Scouts

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 13 (AP)—

It's open season on deer in New Jersey—but not Boy Scouts—the Union County Boy Scout Council decreed today.

The council announced that camping permits for Camp Win-nago, 400-acre tract at Marcella, have been revoked between today and 5 p.m. Saturday.

This, the council said, was done to guard against Boy Scouts being mistaken for deer.

PTA Convenes

METHODS of getting a "large turnout" were discussed last night by members of Middle Smithfield Parent-Teachers Association.

Mrs. Janet Richards was in charge of the meeting. Slides on Veterans Day parade were shown.

Two Bee Stings Take Man's Life

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Dec. 13 (AP)—A part-time beekeeper died last night after being stung by two bees, the coroner's office reported. He was David E. Leach, 66, a construction worker.

His wife told the coroner Leach became ill after the first sting but, thinking little of it, returned to the hives and was stung again. He died five hours later.

What home-town institution has just set an all-time high in savings?

This may surprise you! In 1954 Americans of all kinds—people just like those you see above—put over 19 billion of their hard-earned savings account dollars into insured Savings and Loan Associations... more than in any previous year... and more than they put anywhere else.

Why? Why did millions of Americans elect to save in their home-town, insured Savings and Loan Associations?

There are several very simple reasons:

One—Safety. Your savings are insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation—an agency of the U. S. Government.

Two—Insured Savings and Loan Associations give excellent returns on your savings. That's because they can invest most of their funds in sound, monthly-paying home mortgages.

Three—The officers of insured Savings and Loan Associations really know their communities. Last year they were the nation's largest single source of mortgage loans for home building, buying and alterations! Savings and Loan Associations originated the "pay-like-rent" home mortgage.

Whether you're interested in savings or home loans, drop in at your insured Savings and Loan Association. You'll find it's a mighty good place to do business.

REDUCING DEDUCTIBLE

SAFE DRIVER

The Secret
is SERVICE!

Now! There's greater-than-ever value in State Auto Collision Insurance. The familiar "deductible" has been streamlined—in two different ways—to give you broader protection at low rates.

As an example—

One form reduces the $50 deductible figure as the amount of loss increases until, if the loss totals $100 or more, State Auto pays the full amount.

Another rewards you for safe driving! It reduces the $50 deductible amount by $10 for each year you drive in which no loss is paid under your collision coverage. After 5 consecutive safe years you enjoy full coverage at the $50 deductible rate.

Don't drive another day without one of these great, new broadform policies! Call your friendly State Auto Agent for details, or write for the folder "New Collision Coverage".

"Number Please"

Calling by Number Is More Important Than Ever During the Holidays!

At this time of year more people than ever visit faraway family and friends by telephone. And even though we've made many special arrangements to handle the extra volume, some calls may not go through as quickly as you—and we—would like.

You can be sure your operator will do her level best to handle all your calls promptly. However, you can help her give you faster, better service during the Holiday Season by following this simple suggestion:

Whenever possible, give the operator the number of the telephone you want to reach. That way, she won't have to detour your call through information, and it will go through much faster.

Womans Club Musicales By Madrigal

The Woman's Club Christmas meeting yesterday afternoon filled the club rooms at the Stroud Community House with music, the scent of pine and a large attendance of members and their guests.

Featured in the program were 37 Madrigal Singers of Stroudsburg High School in robes of red and white who sang a capella around a candle-lit table set with a red cloth. Directed by Numa Snyder they presented "Christmas in Folk Song".

Mr. Snyder introduced the numbers, telling something of the background of each of the songs, beginning with a Gloucestershire carol, "Wassail Song", in which he gave the old English recipe for wassail, the "Coventry Carol" from a sixteenth century pageant; "O Little Town of Bethlehem" by Philip Brooks sung to a traditional English melody.

Sue Niesch was soloist in the spiritual "I Wonder as I Wander"; and the program also included the carol by the Mountain Whites, "The Trees Do Moan"; a Polish carol, "Hark, Bethlehem"; and "Silent Night".

The program was presented by Mrs. William R. Levering, music chairman, who also led the club carol singing.

Mrs. Walter H. Caulfield presided at the opening session, welcoming the members and their guests. One new member, Mrs. Paul McBride, was introduced. Mrs. Kunkle explained the Christmas party planned for all sixty babies of the Well-Baby clinic to be held this Wednesday afternoon at the Stroudsburg clinic rooms on Sarah Street. Each child, she explained, will receive a candy cane, an orange and a small toy from the Woman's Club. The collection taken at the meeting amounted to $45 and the money not used for the party will be reserved for purchasing drugs for the children prescribed during the year.

The club rooms were elaborately decorated for the party with mantels and wide window sills featuring Christmas scenes, and a lighted Christmas tree at the front of the rooms. Mrs. John Glasson was assisted by Mrs. Bernard Peters in decorating.

A Christmas tea followed during the social hour. The tea table was set with candles and a centerpiece of red carnations and silvered greens. Mrs. Montgomery F. Crowe and Mrs. F. J. Trumbour poured. Mrs. Merle C. Ostrom and Mrs. Gerald P. O'Neill were also co-chairmen of the tea committee.

Met. Star Is Kin Of Local Folk

The American debut of Christel Goltz in the title role of "Salome" at the Metropolitan Opera on Wednesday night will be of unusual interest to a party of local people who plan to attend. Miss Goltz, who has been one of the bright stars of European opera, is a cousin of Mrs. John Teisher, of 219 East Brown St., East Stroudsburg.

Miss Goltz has sung in all the capitals of Europe. She is coming here directly from Vienna, and this is her first American performance. The opera marks the return of Dimitri Metropoulos as conductor after an absence of 34 months. He will conduct not only the Richard Strauss opera but also the first performance of Zachary Solov's ballet "Bittorio".

Mrs. Teisher's sister, Greta John, of Sarasota, Fla., has come up for the performance and is now a guest at the Teisher home. She will accompany them to New York on Wednesday for the opening.

More than one half of the food stores in the United States now handle frozen foods.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

It's all right now — I feel like Christmas. Maybe it was the scent of pine at the Woman's Club meeting, maybe it was the song of the madrigal singers, maybe it was just sitting still for an hour, taking nary a note but just enjoying myself.

This can be a frustrating season. On the one hand, I long for leisure so that I could just enjoy the holiday parties and on the other hand, I realize full well that I wouldn't be invited to them at all if it weren't for my work.

Well, in the business of trying to eat your cake and have it too you're bound to get a touch of indigestion. And well worth it, I say—much better than eating your heart out at missing the Ann Logan meeting, for instance.

Well, maybe we'll make the General Hospital Auxiliary this afternoon. And speaking of the hospital auxiliaries reminds me that there are a lot of my favorite people just sitting this Christmas meal out in a hospital bed.

So maybe we'd better not complain about having too much to do and just enjoy as much as we have time for. With 15 meetings on the calendar today, we ought to make one of them in time for refreshments, don't you think?

Listen To — Bobby Westbrook on the Party Line over WYPO every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10:05 a.m.

A special invitation has been issued to members of the Anna Logan Hospital Auxiliary to attend the tea and musical, and members may also invite guests. A donation will be used to defray expenses of Christmas trees for the patients at the hospital.

RILEY

Sports Editor

IT HAS TAKEN this column quite awhile to get around to offering congratulations to Bob "Red" Kupiszewski, East Stroudsburg High halfback and football co-captain, for winning honorable mention on the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania grid machine. It was fitting tribute to Kupiszewski who played brilliantly all season and set a new scoring record for the school of 80 points. Kupp, as Bob is known to virtually all of his friends, was a triple-threat star on offense and strong defensively.

Congratulations are also in order for Karl Weingartner, former three-letter athlete at Stroudsburg High and now quarterback for Fork Union Military Academy, in Virginia. Karl was recently named to the quarterback post on the All-Military League team. Condoances are also in order for Dave Nevil, Stroudsburg, and Mike Palmisano, East Stroudsburg. Dave and Mike just missed winning honorable mention as an end and tackle respectively on the all-state squad. Both played fine football during the most recent campaign.

The other day when we listed local gridders to win honorable mention spots on the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania teams in recent years this scribe accidentally omitted the name of Don Herman, East Stroudsburg end, who won honorable mention in 1953. Herman played first string end for the Muhlenberg College freshman club during the past campaign. Maurice Schleicher, Slatington star, was the only Lehigh Valley League griddier to earn honorable mention this season. Kupiszewski was the only Lehigh-Northampton League star honored.

Bangor was forced to play Stroudsburg in basketball on Friday night without Wayne Fysher, its outstanding performer, in uniform. Fysher is on the sick list at the present time. The Mountaineers received an opportunity to use all of its players against the Slaters, as the W. Main St. stage machine rolled to its second victory without a defeat thus far this season. The division of scoring among the Stroudsburg players is a definite sign of strength.

The Mountaineers will feature two combinations this year. The one that has carried the bulk of the load thus far will be in action when Stroudsburg plays on small courts. On the larger playing surfaces a slightly different combination will be used to obtain more speed. If Stroudsburg can continue its domination of the backboards it will do a lot of damage this season and will be tough to handle in any game on the present schedule.

Ben Jones, Lehightown High basketball coach, was undoubtedly pleased to end at the return of Bob Arner to the squad last Friday. Arner, who suffered a fractured arm in the final football game of the past campaign, is the only letterman back from last year's team. Jones, a former local resident, has been finding the going tough thus far this season, but the reason is the lack of experience. Before Arner's return to the squad it featured nothing in the way of experience.

Alex Kaslik, Palmerton resident, recently was thanked by the Palmerton School Board for the work he did for the past two football seasons in transporting players to Little Gap and Bowmanstown following games and practice sessions. Kaslik was assisted by members of the Booster Club and the Hungarian Club. The Varsity "E" Club carried out a similar venture at East Stroudsburg High during the past campaign.

Dick Jones and Ed Welliver, former Slatington High basketball stars, will probably play for the Palmerton Redwings, area semi-pro basketball team, in the near future. Both Jones and Ed Welliver played outstanding basketball against Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg last season. Is Roy Schleicher, recently retired Slatington football coach, going into the resort business? He plans to remain active as a teacher and baseball coach.

Both the Varsity "E" and Varsity "S" Club have important business meetings scheduled this week. The Varsity "E" organization will meet tomorrow night, while the Varsity "S" discusses business on Thursday night. Nino Valdes, who trains at Harry's Farm, area camp, when working in the United States, scored a second round TKO victory over Jimmy Walls, Englewood, N.J., in Hamilton, Bermuda, Saturday night. Valdes trained for this bout near his home, Havana, Cuba.

East Stroudsburg Entertains Parkland Foe Tonight

Cavaliers Meet First Loop Rival

EAST Stroudsburg High School will assist in opening the Lehigh-Northampton League basketball flag race today when the Cavaliers entertain a highly regarded Parkland contingent on the N. Courtland St. hardwood.

Today's contest will be the first of two circuit outings to be held on the East Stroudsburg court this week. Wilson Borough, another highly regarded quintet, will invade the local arena on Friday.

All Lehigh-Northampton League junior varsity games are scheduled to begin at 6:30 p. m., but Parkland has requested and received permission to start tonight's preliminary encounter 15 minutes later. East Stroudsburg readily agreed to the request.

The varsity tussle will get underway at approximately 8:15 p. m. East Stroudsburg will take a pre-season record of one win and a lone defeat into tonight's encounter. The Cavaliers opened the campaign by dropping a 53-50 verdict to Stroudsburg and then bounced back with a 59-51 nod over the Alumni.

Coach Dick Forster will undoubtedly start Barry Lambert and Howard Smith at the forward berths for tonight's contest. Co-Captain Bill Pensyl will handle the center duties, while Bill Sommer and Co-Captain Bob "Red" Kupiszewski open at the guard posts.

Jim Kimler, Dick Gray and Danny Marvin are other East Stroudsburg cagers likely to see service in tonight's encounter. Parkland is annually one of the powerhouses in the basketball division of the Lehigh-Northampton League and this season is no exception. The winner in tonight's tussle will be off to a flying start in the current flag race.

Stroudsburg High is idle from basketball action today, but will play Benjamin Franklin High in Carbondale tomorrow.

Greco Dies In Accident

MONTREAL, Dec. 13 (AP)—Johnny Greco, former Canadian welterweight champion, was killed in an auto accident here yesterday.

The 31-year-old fighter's car skidded, leaped a sidewalk and crashed into a tree.

His professional boxing career stretched back some 14 years. He fought 14 bouts in New York's Madison Square Garden, 11 of them main events.

Greco worked at Harry's Farm, training camp located near Columbia, N. J., for a comeback try in September.

During his training session he served as a sparring partner for "Chico" Varona, welterweight champion of Cuba.

Greco ruled as the welterweight champion of Canada from 1946 until 1953.

Senators List Spring Schedule

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (AP)—The Washington Senators will play 29 exhibition baseball games next spring, all against major league opposition.

The pre-season series winds up with two game-sets against Brooklyn and Cincinnati at Griffith Stadium. As has been the case for the past decade, the Senators will be headquartered at Orlando, Fla.

Cubs Sign Star Catcher

CHICAGO, Dec. 13 (AP)—Catcher Harry Chitt, recently discharged from the Army, today signed with the Chicago Cubs for 1955.

Chitt batted .326 and .388 for Ft. Lee, Va., service team the last two seasons. He originally was signed by the Cubs in 1950 after graduating from Detroit's Northwestern High School.

Appointment of Shaw was announced after Coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears said his physician advised him not to take the job. Jim Trimble of the Philadelphia Eagles will coach the East team.

Pocono Mountains League Lists Stroudsburg As Seventh Basketball Contingent In Fold

TANNERSVILLE—Stroudsburg Veterans of Foreign Wars is the seventh entry in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League, it was announced last night by Ray Davies, circuit president.

The announcement was made following a regularly scheduled meeting here at Trach's Pocono Hotel. A total of 15 men were present at the gathering.

Stroudsburg joins a list containing Tannersville, Gray's Chevrolet, Pocono Lake, Barrett, Lake Harmony and West End. An eighth team from out of the area is interested in playing, but the circuit would like to add a club from this area.

But if the eighth team isn't in the fold by next Monday, at which time the next meeting will be held, the league will operate with seven clubs if necessary. The next meeting will also be held at Trach's once again, at 8:30 p. m.

Lake Harmony was given permission to draw players from the Jim Thorpe area at last night's meeting and the fact that Barrett is without a home floor at the present time also came up for discussion.

Stroudsburg and Barrett are the only new teams in the circuit thus far, all others have campaigned last year.

The Pocono Lake club this season is a combination of the Pocono Lake and Tobyhanna teams of last year.

Regular season play is expected to begin right after the first of the year. A schedule will be drawn up in the very near future.

Martin Backs Choices Of Olson, Berra

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (AP)—Caught short:

Nobody can quarrel with the choice by the New York boxing writers of "Bobo" Olson for the Edward J. Neil Award as fighter of the year, although the honor would have the hollow echo of a vacant house if he should lose to Pierre Langlois in their title bout in San Francisco Wednesday night.

The very fact he was chosen with the bout still to be held is indication enough that the writers give Langlois little chance against the busy "Bobo," who has been as active as a preliminary fighter since winning the championship in an elimination final against Randy Turpin in October, 1953.

"Bobo" has had six fights this year, two of them title defenses. Langlois has had only four, the last in May, and he lost two of them, one to the overstuffed welterweight, Gil Turner.

Olson rapidly is reaching the position occupied by "Rocky" Marciano and Archie Moore in that he is running out of opponents capable of giving him a workout.

Moore is so far in front in the light heavyweight division he is looking toward Marciano as an opponent. "Bobo" will be looking toward Moore for competition. A couple of good looking guys, you might say.

Olson lost twice to Ray Robinson, once by kyo, but if "Sugar Ray" has any intention of regaining his middleweight title he'd better not figure he can take "Bobo" a third time without taking a deep breath. In fact, we don't believe he could do it. The current champion is a vastly improved fighter, while Robinson isn't the fighter he once was. Probably can tap dance better, though.

Speaking of choices, there possibly is some indignation, frustration and condemnation in some quarters concerning the selection of Yogi Berra as the American League's most valuable player. Cleveland followers particularly would object to the choice over one of their players. After all, the Indians won the pennant.

Aside from statistics which might prove a point, there is always something intangible about a player's value to his team, and a player on a last-place club conceivably could be of more value to his hapless team than a player on a pennant winner.

That "Yogi" was the heart of the Yankees the past season cannot be denied. Phil Rizzuto used to carry the load, but when the Scooter slipped "Yogi" Berra took his place.

The squat, knock-kneed catcher is the bane of opposing pitchers because they just don't know how to pitch to him. He's liable to knock a high outside pitch into the stands on one occasion, and do the same with a low outside pitch the next time up. As has been said of many players, his weakness is a base on balls.

This was the year of the big break for a lot of baseball players, much to their regret.

We don't know when there has been a season when so many outstanding athletes suffered broken bones which kept them out of action anywhere from weeks to months.

Offhand, we can think of Ted Williams, collarbone; Al Rosen, finger; Mel Parnell, arm; Bobby Thomson, ankle, and Enos Slaughter, ribs.

There undoubtedly were others, but that gives a fair idea of the hazards of the game, and why club officials break out in a cold sweat every time a high-salaried player stubs his toe.

Connecticut Sets Records

BOSTON, Dec. 13 (AP)—Center Art Quinby smashed three records with a 49 point performance and his teammates broke another mark tonight as Connecticut swamped Boston College, 117-74, in the second half of a college basketball doubleheader at Boston Garden.

Brandels beat Wheaton, 103-88, for its 17th straight victory in the first game as Roger Morgan and Gerry Smith contributed 23 points each.

Bangor Battles Nazareth In First Circuit Tilt Tonight

BANGOR—Bangor High School launches its portion of the Lehigh-Northampton League basketball schedule tonight when the Slaters stack up against Nazareth, on the latter's court.

Both clubs have been in-and-out thus far in the present campaign against all pre-season opposition and each would like very much to open the league wars with a victory.

Bangor has lost to Slatington and Stroudsburg and has accounted for its lone victory with a decision over Chestnuthill.

Coach John Heard announced last night that he has been forced to make a change in his starting lineup because of the illness of Wayne Fysher, outstanding guard.

The lanky mentor said that Don Keat would be shifted from center to forward to team with Jim Freeman, while Art "Bucky" Parsons switches from forward to center. Duane Miller will be one guard, while the other starting assignment rests between Ronnie Everett, a senior, and "Jabby" Williams, a sophomore promoted from the junior varsity following last Friday's game at Stroudsburg.

Other Bangor players likely to see action are Jim Warrick, Glen Heard, Gary Strauss, Wayne Landry, Jack Stenlake, Don Evans and Ed Traves.

The junior varsity game will begin at 6:30 p. m. and the varsity encounter at approximately 8 p. m. Bangor plays its second league game on the road too, as the Slaters invade Parkland on Friday.

THE DAILY RECORD

ALL-MILITARY—Karl Weingartner, Stroudsburg High, and Don "Red" Christman, Northampton High, are shown in their familiar poses as quarterback and center respectively for Forks Union Military Academy. Each won a position on the All-Military League of Virginia team recently.

Former Stroudsburg Star Wins Quarterback Position On All-Military Football Squad

RICHMOND, Va. — Karl Weingartner, former three-letter athlete at Stroudsburg High School, was a near unanimous selection for the quarterback position on the All-Military League of Virginia football team selected here yesterday.

Weingartner, who was a star in football, basketball and baseball at Stroudsburg High before entering Forks Union Military Academy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Weingartner, Bartonsville.

It was through Weingartner's brilliant play that Fork Union was able to win the Military League championship this season. Fork Union won the crown on Thanksgiving Day when it scored an 8-7 win over Staunton Military Academy. Weingartner scored his team's only touchdown and ripped off two runs of 75 yards.

He kicked extra points and did the passing for Fork Union, in addition to playing defense.

Don "Red" Christman, former

Northampton High star, won the center position on the All-Military club. Christman, weighing 195 pounds, was outstanding on both offense and defense throughout the campaign. Christman previously had opposed Weingartner in their scholastic grid wars. Don was also a wrestler in high school.

Christman was a high school teammate of Jim Oplinger, now a member of the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College football squad.

Fork Union placed five men on the All-Military squad, while Staunton had four. Massanutten had two. Hargrave failed to place a man on the first team, but was represented on the second squad.

In addition to Weingartner and Christman, Fork Union was represented by J. P. Vass, end; Pat Lamberti, tackle, and Elmer Collins, left halfback. Staunton's colors were carried by Don Plunkett, end; Ken Beck, tackle; Bill McFarland, guard, and Dave

Vass won the final game with Staunton by scoring a safety which proved to be the winning margin for Fork Union.

Second team selections were Bill Trado, Fork Union, end; Harvie Ayers, Hargrave, end; Glynn Copeland, Fork Union, tackle; Bill Brown, Hargrave, tackle; Cecil Moser, Fork Union, guard; Fred Mueller, Fork Union, guard; Bob Jenkins, Staunton, center; Ed Davis, Hargrave, quarterback; Bob Johnson, Massanutten, left halfback; Baxter Huss, Hargrave, right halfback, and Roland DeLuca, Fork Union, fullback. DeLuca is a former Easton High star.

Coaches taking part in the balloting were "Rosie" Thomas, Fork Union; Al McCue, Staunton; John Lee, Massanutten, and Al Draughon, Hargrave.

Memorial Services To Be Held For Late Heavyweight Boxer

BOSTON, Dec. 13 (P)—The body of heavyweight boxer Ed Sanders started its tragic plane journey to Los Angeles tonight.

Sanders died from brain injuries yesterday, some 13 hours after being knocked out in the 11th round of a New England heavyweight championship bout with Willie James of Boston. Sanders, who underwent a delicate four hour operation, never regained consciousness.

Daubert Entry Wins First Place Berth

LOU OF BIRCH CREEK, owned by Lawrence T. Daubert, Walnutport, won first place in the 13-inch division of the Kuntz Memorial Field Trial held Sunday at Maple-in-the-Pines, home grounds of the Monroe Beagle Club.

Teena II of Algaras, the property of Allen Lorch, finished second, while Carbon Hill Manie, belonging to Joseph Frassinelli, was third. Number four entry was Molly W. owned by Charley Yawger, while reserve honors went to Harland Nifty, the property of Lee Szenowski. A total of 18 beagle hounds took part in the 13-inch division.

Pop-up Diver, belonging to Ralph Wesne, finished first in the 15-inch class which attracted 25 hounds.

Vance's Smoky, owned by Ken Vance, finished second and Newton's K, the property of Lloyd Nelson, was third.

Secret Weapon, another Vance entry, was fourth and reserve laurels were won by Rusty Smoky, owned by George Simmons.

Co-Captain Selected

STATE COLLEGE, Dec. 13 (P)—"Rosie" Grier, giant football tackle of Linden, N. J., will co-captain the 1955 Penn State track and field team.

Swedes, U. S. In Final Drills

BREISBANE, Tuesday, Dec. 14 (P)—Confident Americans and grim up-set-minded Swedes got a look at Milton's lush closely-guarded center court today in a final three-hour workout for the weekend's inter-zone Davis Cup tennis finals. Tomorrow both squads gather for the draw at City Hall, where U. S. Capt. Bill Talbert and little Gunnar Gallin, head man of the Swedes, are expected to name officially two man teams for the important series Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

America will shoot with a pair who have been trying to recapture the cup the last three years, U. S. champion Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert, while Sweden makes its bid with two international veterans, Lennart Bergelin and Sven Davidson.

County Court Stars In Final Tuneups

League Play To Begin On Friday

THREE members of the Monroe County League will go through their final pre-season paces tonight, while the other half of the circuit remains idle. They begin playing for keeps on Friday of this week.

One of the top contests on tonight's agenda will feature Barrett, defending champion in the Monroe County League, against Greene-Dreher-Sterling, a club that has won four straight games against Monroe County opposition to date. The contest will be played at Newfoundland.

The junior varsity contest is listed for 7:15 p. m. and the main event for approximately 8:30 p. m.

Tahyanna Township High, currently in the process of rebuilding under the guidance of Coach Ronnie Davis, will play host to the Pocono Lake town team. This game was originally listed for last Friday but was postponed because of a dance in the gymnasium.

The preliminary contest will feature the junior varsity squad divided into two teams and will get underway at 7:15 p. m. The varsity tussle is on the agenda for 8:30 p. m.

Pocono High and its Alumni clash in Tannersville, as the charges of Coach Harry Werkheiser attempt to even their record at one win and a single loss. Pocono fell before Greene-Dreher in its only game thus far in the season.

The preliminary contest will begin at 7:15 p. m. and the varsity battle will be fought at approximately 8:30 p. m.

Coolbaugh, Chestnut Hill and Polk are slated to be idle tonight.

The Monroe County League will feature its largest schedule in history beginning Friday. For the first time each team will play 15 circuit games instead of 10 as in the past.

Opening round pairings on Friday will find Chestnut Hill at Pocono, Barrett at Tahyanna Township and Coolbaugh at Polk.

League play will continue on Tuesday and Friday until February 18.

Bell Lifts Suspension

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13 (P)—Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League today lifted a seven-year suspension against Merle Hapes, now an assistant coach of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian league.

Hapes, a half back for the New York Giants who came to pros from the University of Mississippi, was cleared by Bell in 1947 of accepting a bribe but was suspended "for conduct detrimental to the welfare" of the NFL.

Hapes last week asked Bell to reinstate him. The commissioner, after a hearing, granted the plea and ruled that the former Giant accept a bribe but was suspended "for conduct detrimental to the welfare" of the NFL.

Browns Sign Ratterman

CLEVELAND, Dec. 13 (P)—The Cleveland Browns, hinting that Otto Graham may retire, announced today that George Ratterman had signed a 1955 contract.

To sign up for another year as a Cleveland quarterback, Ratterman "passed up an opportunity to become head football coach at Xavier University in his native Cincinnati," the announcement said.

The signing, said the Browns, assures the Cleveland team of "an experienced hand at the important quarterback position should Graham carry out his retirement plans at the close of this season."

Advances One Notch

STATE COLLEGE, Dec. 13 — John Egli, Purple Heart veteran, and erstwhile freshman coach, is Penn State's new head coach in basketball.

Teachers College Conference Takes Major Steps Toward Future Improvement Of Circuit

HARRISBURG.—The Athletic Committee of the State Teachers College Conference yesterday discussed the adoption of the rules and by-laws of the Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to govern the 14-school conference in the future. Such a move would have to be approved by the Board of presidents.

If the conference, of which East Stroudsburg State Teachers College is a member, adopts the ECAC setup, it doesn't necessarily mean that the conference will join the ECAC body. It means only that the conference will be ruled in a similar manner.

The Pennsylvania group also named three men to consider a permanent and integrated conference football schedule.

Such a schedule, if adopted by the Conference, would not become effective until the 1957 season. At present the 14 state teachers colleges draw up their schedules individually.

Named to the football schedule study committee were Hubert Jack, Lock Haven, chairman;

Waldo Tiffin, Clarion; and John Pucillo, Millersville.

The committee voted to transfer the annual state teachers college wrestling tournament from West Chester, where it was scheduled to be held, to Lock Haven, the site of last year's tourney. It will be held February 25-26 instead of March 4 and 5 as previously scheduled.

A spokesman said the move was made because the West Chester member had not been able to make complete preparations for the tourney in time.

Slippery Rock and California were the only colleges not represented at the semiannual meeting.

Oscar J. Liljenstein, vice president of the conference and athletic director at ESSTC, and Gene Martin, head football coach and dean of men, were present at the gathering.

Other schools represented were West Chester, Bloomsburg, Mansfield, Millersville, Kutztown, Cheyney, Edinboro, Indiana, Shippensburg, Clarion and Lock Haven.

One Time Army Football Star Signs To Direct Citadel Squad

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (P)—The "House of Black," one of the major dynasties in football coaching, had a new member in a head coach's position role today, but the mud scramble for teaching talent by the losing teams continued unabated.

Varsity 'E' Club To Meet

A MEETING of the Varsity "E" Club will take place at East Stroudsburg High School tomorrow, at 7:30 p. m. All club members are urged to attend the gathering.

The Christmas Basketball Tournament will be the number one topic of discussion. Another fund raising venture will also be brought before the gathering by Kirk Shaw, club president.

State Names All-Foe Team

STATE COLLEGE, Dec. 13 — Illinois, 14-12 upset victim in the season's opener, and two mid-season conquerors, West Virginia and Texas Christian, won three places each on the all-opponent eleven chosen today by members of the Penn State football squad.

The Illinois choices were Jan Smid, guard, and halfbacks J. C. Caroline and Abe Woodson. West Virginia placed Bruce Bosley at tackle, Gene Lamone at guard, and Freddie Wyatt at quarterback. The TCU threesome was composed of Hugh Pitts, center, Johnny Crouch, end, and "Buddy" Dike, fullback.

Two traditional rivals, Penn and Pitt, gained the other two positions. Quaker end Jim Castle was a strong choice, as was tackle Lou Palatella, of Pitt. In practically every case, the first choice was by an overwhelming margin.

Runner-up selections were Hillen, West Virginia, and McGuire, Pitt, ends; Kraemer, Pitt, and Huff, West Virginia, tackles; Yung, TCU, and Hunter, Pitt, guards; and Donaldson, West Virginia, center. Backs were Clinksale, TCU, quarterback; Ford, Pitt, and Hynski, Penn, halfbacks; and Marconi, West Virginia, fullback.

Dussart Wins Decision

LEEUE, Belgium, Dec. 13 (P)—Kid Dussart, 154, of Belgium outpointed European welterweight champion Wally Thom of Great Britain in a non-title 10 round bout here tonight. Thom also weighed 154.

U. S. Olympic Cagers Search For Schedule

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (P)—The U. S. Olympic Basketball Committee today appointed a new manager for its Pan American Games basketball squad, announced a coach and went searching for a schedule.

Maj. Roy P. Johnson, former all-around athlete at Illinois, was named manager of the squad and in turn picked Lt. Norm Pilgram, one-time Oklahoma A & M star, as coach.

Johnson, who succeeds Maj. Don Rossi, said a squad of 25 to 30 players from all branches of the armed services will be assembled at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, starting Dec. 26.

After two weeks of drills the squad will be available for games, Johnson said, and he appealed to coaches throughout the country for games.

Johnson said proceeds of the games would pay for the training expenses with any profit going into the Olympic basketball fund.

The Olympic Committee appealed to the armed services for help primarily because of the dates of both the Pan American Games and the 1956 Olympics. The Pan American games in Mexico City will be staged next March.
